SETH M.R. JAIPURIA SCHOOL - 30 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

Barwani is a municipal town in Barwani district of Madhya Pradesh, India, that is situated near the left bank of the Narmada River. It is the administrative headquarters of Barwani district and has also served as the capital of the former princely state of Barwani. Barwani is only accessible by road.

The name Barwani originated from the words Bad and Wani. The Forests of "Bad" surrounded the city in old times and "Wani" is an old word meaning "the garden", translating to the Garden of Bad. Despite its official spelling, Barwani is pronounced as "Badwani".

Barwani is located at 22.03°N 74.9°E. It has an average elevation of 178 meters (583 feet). The Narmada River flows through Barwani; it is 5 km (3.1 miles) from the city centre. The maximum temperature of Barwani in April and May used to reach 48 °C (118 °F), making it one of the hottest places in Central India. However, in recent years, it has cooled down. [citation needed] Narmada River View with Satpura Mountain Ranges in the backdrop. The hills of the Satpura Range surround Barwani. The city is also called the "Paris of Nimar" ("area beyond Neem trees"). Nimar is split into East Nimar and West Nimar; Barwani lies in West Nimar. The annual rainfall of Barwani is around 15 in (38 cm), though since 2006 it has increased significantly. [citation needed] Barwani is famous for its papayas and Bawangaja, a Jain holy place 8 km (5.0 miles) from Barwani.

I AM IN BARWANI

An academic institute should stand for dreams, building of character & skills, and defining a person's life. At Jaipuria, we understand that the years that a student spends with us would 'shape or break' that individual, so there is great power and greater responsibility in the hands of the school. Seth M. R. Jaipuria School, Barwani is established under the aegis of Saraswati Malviya Educational Trust, Barwani with a mission to "Nurture Tender Minds". The purpose of Seth M. R. Jaipuria School, Barwani is to prepare a new generation of responsible social leaders that will help the world at large, be proactive to meet the global challenges of the 21st century and surpass the realms of the ordinary. The entire value system of the school is driven around innovation, creativity and entrepreneurship. The underlying context is always such that there should be the desire for excellence, zeal to go beyond the regular, and provide for growth and development of individuals and societies in the coming future. We welcome you to experience this magnificence in your city, Barwani!
